
SIX ROOMS FOR THE WORK TO LIVE IN

Pick the room that feels like yours.

Six full homepage redesigns. Same artist, same gallery, six completely different palettes and feels. Each one is engineered to feel safe, not on display.

The brief: real, emotionally safe, creative and artistic. Someone survived something here. Not "look how tortured I was." Every concept refuses shock imagery at the door. Heavy pieces sit behind soft doors. The visitor never has to explain herself to be welcome.

How to choose, without overthinking it: flip through. Don't read the placeholder words too closely. Notice which room makes your shoulders drop.

hello, friend.

Come in. Take your shoes off. Stay as long as you need.

WARM HOSPITALITY ROUNDED FRIENDLY

CONCEPT 01

Hearth

"Come inside, the kettle's on."

Warm cream and soft peach. Rounded corners, soft pillows of color. Friendly humanist serif (Fraunces). The site opens by saying hello like a friend's living room. Artist appears as the host, not the survivor on display. A soft promise strip up top: "no pressure to share," "soft entries," "made with care."

PALETTE

WARM

HOSPITALITY

ROUNDED

Pick Hearth if you want it to feel like a friend's home, doors held open, the room ready for you.

THE FOG WILL LIFT

A quiet place at the edge of the water.

CONCEPT 02

Tidewater

"The fog will lift."

Cool fog white, slate, sea-glass green, pale coral, anchored by deep navy ink. Classical serif (Lora).

Coastal dawn energy. The first cool-toned concept in the set. Calming by way of water and fog, not warmth. Architectural and spacious without being clinical.

PALETTE

COOL

COASTAL

SPACIOUS

Pick Tidewater if you want it to feel like standing at a window on a foggy morning, calm by way of water.

A KEPT LIGHT

I left the lamp on.
Come sit with me.

"You don't have to be over it to be here."

CONCEPT 03

Lantern

"I'll sit with you in the dark."

Warm umber lit from within by candle-glow amber. For visitors who find peppy bright sites invalidating in the middle of something hard. Anti-toxic-positivity. Dignified low light, not gothic. The site refuses to flinch and refuses to perform cheerfulness.

PALETTE

WARM-DARK

VIGIL

HONEST

*Pick Lantern if you want the site to refuse peppy.
To meet whoever arrives where they actually are.*

A HELD ROOM

Stay as long as you need to.

"A room with the lights set low on purpose."

CONCEPT 04

Iris

"The cool side of held."

Deep plum, soft lilac, cool silver-gray. The cool-dark counterpart to Lantern's warm-dark. For visitors who find warm orange home tones too "homey" when something is breaking. Elegant DM Serif Display. Refined, contemplative, the kind of quiet that holds without speaking.

PALETTE

COOL-DARK

ELEGANT

SANCTUARY

Pick Iris if you want the held feeling of Lantern but cool instead of warm. Refined sanctuary.

CONCEPT 05

Atrium

"Honest by being clean."

Bright gallery white, slate, single warm ochre accent. Editorial-modern. Sans-serif primary (Inter) with a restrained serif headline (Newsreader). Aesop store or Frieze magazine energy. Refuses both melodrama and saccharine. Confident without being aggressive. The work treated with the calm authority of a contemporary gallery.

PALETTE

MODERN

BRIGHT

CONSIDERED

Pick Atrium if you want it to feel like a real contemporary gallery. Honest, clean, unsentimental.

— A QUIET PLACE UNDER COVER

The woods knew before we did.

"The kind of old that says: this has been carried before."

WALK THE COLLECTION →

CONCEPT 06

Mosswood

"The woods knew first."

Deep forest green, birch, rust, mushroom. EB Garamond serif. Primordial, mossy, the kind of old that holds without needing to speak. The opposite of clean-modern Atrium. Earthy companion energy. For the visitor who needs the room to feel ancient and known rather than designed.

PALETTE

DEEP

EARTHY

ANCIENT

Pick Mosswood if you want it deep, primordial, the kind of room the woods would build.

You don't have to decide today. Just notice which one your shoulders prefer.

All six are real, full builds. Whichever you pick, we can show you a working preview in the browser, polish the details with you, then port it across the entire site.

The honest tradeoffs in one line each:

i.

Hearth

Warmest. Most "friend's home." Lightest emotional register.

ii.

Tidewater

Coollest light. Spacious. Coastal calm. Anchored by navy ink.

iii.

Lantern

Warm-dark. Candle vigil. Refuses to be peppy.

iv.

Iris

Cool-dark. Plum sanctuary. Refined, elegant, quiet.

v.

Atrium

Brightest. Most "contemporary gallery." Clean and confident.

vi.

Mosswood

Deepest. Forest-old. The room a tree would build.
