

———— A KEPT LIGHT ————

I left the lamp on.
Come sit with me.

Some hurts don't want bright rooms and cheerful encouragement. They want a chair next to yours, and a light low enough to think under. This is that room.

WHO MADE THIS

"You don't have to be over it to be here. You only have to be here."

—————
A NOTE KEPT BESIDE THE LAMP

I keep this place because someone kept one for me.

There was a season I couldn't be cheered up. The forwarded inspirational quote said
Behind the Mask
like being told to smile while drowning. What I needed was somebody who wouldn't flinch.

So I started drawing the things people don't usually let us draw. Not to perform what I survived, but to mark that I did. And to leave the light on for whoever comes next.

LANTERNS IN THE GALLERY

Each piece is a small kept light for a particular kind of dark.

Open the one that meets you where you are. Skip the ones that don't. You're not obligated to walk the whole hall.

9 PIECES

Anxiety & the 3am hours

For the nights the mind won't let go and morning still hasn't shown up.

SIT WITH ME

If a piece you needed isn't here, tell me what it would have said.

You don't have to be ready. You don't have to be eloquent. You only have to begin.
