

Six rooms for the work to live in.

Same artist. Same gallery. Six genuinely different palettes and feels.

The first round of concepts was too similar (cream, beige, paper-warm). This round breaks the palette entirely. Each concept now sits in a different temperature, brightness, and emotional register. The brief still holds: hospitality, not exhibition. Real, emotionally safe, creative and artistic.

The new palette spread: warm-light (Hearth), cool-light (Tidewater), warm-dark (Lantern), cool-dark (Iris), modern-bright (Atrium), deep-earth (Mosswood). No two share DNA.

hello, friend.

CONCEPT 01 · WARM-LIGHT

Hearth

Come inside, the kettle's on.

Warm cream + peach + sage. Rounded everything. Friendly humanist serif (Fraunces). Opens by saying hello like a friend's living room. Artist is the host.

CONCEPT 02 · COOL-LIGHT

Tidewater

The fog will lift.

Cool fog + slate + sea-glass + pale coral. Classical serif (Lora). Coastal dawn energy. Calming by way of water, not warmth. Anchored by a deep navy ink.

A KEPT LIGHT

Come sit with me.

"You don't have to be over it to be here."

CONCEPT 03 · WARM-DARK

Lantern

I'll sit with you in the dark.

Warm umber lit from within. Candle-glow amber. For visitors who find bright peppy sites invalidating mid-something-hard. Anti-toxic-positivity. Dignified low light.

A HELD ROOM

Stay as long as you need to.

"A room with the lights set low on purpose."

CONCEPT 04 · COOL-DARK

Iris

The cool side of held.

Deep plum + lilac + cool silver. The cool-dark counterpart to Lantern's warm-dark. For people who find warm-orange home tones too "homey." Elegant DM Serif Display.

CONCEPT 05 · MODERN-BRIGHT

Atrium

Honest by being clean.

Bright gallery white + slate + single warm ochre accent. Editorial-modern. Sans-serif primary (Inter) with restrained serif (Newsreader). Aesop store / Frieze magazine energy. Refuses both melodrama and saccharine.

— A QUIET PLACE UNDER COVER

The woods knew before we did.

"The kind of old that says: this has been carried before."

CONCEPT 06 · DEEP-EARTH

Mosswood

The woods knew first.

Deep forest green + birch + rust + mushroom. EB Garamond serif. Primordial, mossy, the kind of old that holds without needing to speak. Anti-trendy. Earthy companion energy.

How to choose, without overthinking it.

Open each one. Scroll the whole homepage. Don't read the placeholder copy too closely. Notice which room makes your shoulders drop.

Hearth if you want it warm and hospitable. Tidewater if you want calm by way of water and fog. Lantern if you want held in warm dark. Iris if you want held in cool dark. Atrium if you want it modern and unsentimental. Mosswood if you want it deep and primordial.

Six genuinely different temperatures, brightness levels, and emotional registers. No two share DNA. Tell us which room feels like yours and we build it out fully.
